

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, DELHI

LL.M. (Professional), Semester-II (Batch of 2020)

End Semester Examinations, July-2021

Paper: Climate Change and Environmental Justice

Total Marks: 100

Instructions:

1. All questions carry equal marks. Attempt any five.
 2. Answer to any question should not exceed more than 1000 words.
 3. No clarification shall be sought on the question paper.
-

1. “Paris Summit was seen as a ray of hope in the area of climate change negotiations”. Elucidate the above statement with the help of specific examples from the Paris Declaration.
2. Elaborate upon the broad framework as established by UNFCCC for climate change negotiations.
3. “Climate Justice theories grapple with chasm between expectations of Global North and South”. Engage with the above statement with the help of at least two such theories.
4. What are the various market mechanisms available under climate change treaties? Critically evaluate their effectiveness in achieving the goals of climate change negotiations.
5. What are the various collective positions taken by high negotiating parties in climate change negotiations? Briefly explain those positions.
6. Write a short note on the following-
 - a) Climate Change and Capitalism.
 - b) Common but Differentiated Responsibilities and Respective Capabilities.