

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, DELHI

LL.M. Degree Programme, I-Semester (Batch of 2018)

End-Semester Examinations, December- 2018

Paper: Law and Justice in a Globalizing World

Time: 3:00 Hours

Total Marks: 50

Instructions:

Kindly use any relevant readings, examples or class discussions in support of the arguments you may make. Please try and write legibly and clearly and confine any rough work to a separate portion of the answer script.

PART- A (32 MARKS)

[Answer any TWO questions in a minimum of 1000 words]

- Q1. Can Amartya Sen's concepts of nyaya and niti help in understanding the strategies, claims and objectives of the # Me Too movement?
- Q2. Critically compare the role played by colonialism in the context of identity formation in South and South-East Asia.
- Q3. Would you advocate for a 'universalist' or 'particularist' approach in the context of creating, maintaining and expanding global human rights regimes?
- Q4. Critically analyse the concept of 'sovereignty' in the context of the interaction between the nation-state and processes of globalization.

PART- B (18 MARKS)

[Answer any TWO questions in a minimum of 500 words]

- Q1. In what ways, if any, did state formation in Asia differ from the 'standard' model in Europe?
- Q2. Critically analyse the 'commons' approach advocated by Ostrom in the context of environmental or climate issues today.
- Q3. Discuss any two issues of transnational liability raised by the Bhopal Gas Tragedy.
- Q4. In your opinion, do the alleged benefits of localization laws outweigh their alleged harms?